

Welcome to the Academic Division Pages of the GMWA Website!

The information contained on these pages is intended to give members and the faculty and staff of the GMWA a preview of operations in the upcoming August general convention session. The Dean and Board of Directors have the rights to make changes at any time.

Faculty and Staff should review this website periodically for changes and/or additions that might occur before the annual convention in August.

General inquiries on the Gospel Music Workshop of America should be directed to the GMWA Convention Manager, Mr. Mark Smith at:

Convention Manager
Gospel Music Workshop of America, Inc.
3908 W. Warren St.
Detroit, MI 48208
(313) 898-6900

Requests for additional class materials (after first being received by Chapter Representatives at the April board meeting), transcripts of classes taken at GMWA convention sessions and general information pertaining to the operations and developments within the Academic Division only, should be addressed to:

Mrs. Lorene Simmons
Academic Division, GMWA Inc.
lsimmons1400@wideopenwest.com

Specific inquiries and concerns on the Academic Division must be addressed directly to the Dean at:

Office of The Dean
Gospel Music Workshop of America, Inc.
dean@gmwanational.org

The government of the Gospel Music Workshop of America is vested in a Board of Directors. The Board of Directors establishes policies and procedures governing the operations of the organization and is free to execute all powers as set forth to them in the Constitution and By-Laws of the organization. The Dean is a member of the Board of Directors.

The Affiliate Chapter (Aka Local Chapter) is the basic unit of organization of the Gospel Music Workshop of America). A Chapter Representative, appointed by the national Board of Directors, heads each local chapter. Chapter Representatives are given the current